

Gov. Vivian Gives Commencement Address For 177 Seniors In Johnson Hall Tomorrow

The Rocky Mountain Collegian

Published By The Associated Students Of The Colorado State College Of A. & M. A.
VOLUME LIII FORT COLLINS, COLORADO THURSDAY, APRIL 22, 1943 NUMBER 31

A. Kroehler Wins Dictionary In Language Contest

Identification of twenty-six out of twenty-nine languages won for A. Kroehler, social science major from Lyman, Nebraska. Kroehler won the prize for recognizing the most languages in the contest recently sponsored by the Colorado State Library.

Kroehler's only errors on the usual propaganda pamphlets distributed in the United States were Arabic for Persian and Flemish instead of African. Popular Persian consists of many Arabic words and African is really a type of Flemish.

Prize
The dictionary of synonyms given as a prize is the 1942 edition published by G. and C. Merriam. Marjorie K. Foster, Loveland, recognized 23 of the 29 languages, placing second.

Summer Library Hours

James G. Hodgson, librarian, announces that summer library hours will be the same as those of the regular semesters; namely, 8:00 a. m. to 9:30 p. m. Monday through Thursday; 8:00 a. m. to 6:00 p. m. Friday; 8:00 a. m. to 2:00 noon Saturday, and 2:00 to 5:00 p. m. Sunday.

Silver Spruce

Anyone who wants their Silver Spruce sent to any other address other than the one in the Student Directory must leave his name and new address at the Spruce office as soon as possible. The 1943 annuals will be sent to Fort Collins to be distributed this summer and those in summer school are urged to get their annuals here rather than having them sent to their home address. In this way, the Silver Spruce will be able to curtail the further expense of postage.

Stone Fountain Erected In Oval By Sigma Tau

Colorado State's Alpha Alpha chapter of Sigma Tau, national honorary engineering fraternity, has recently erected a drinking fountain in the center of the Oval on the campus and presented it to Colorado State College. A masonry base is crowned by the symbol of the fraternity, a pyramid, representing stability and a rail section, representing progress. The iron pyramid was cast and machined in the Mechanical Engineering shops and the masonry base was cast in the concrete laboratory in the Civil Engineering building.

ANNUAL SUNSET RETREAT PARADE HELD AT COLORADO FIELD TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The militaristic rhythm of swinging arms and legs under a bright sun shining over Colorado Field Tuesday afternoon characterized the annual Sunset Retreat Parade, with special significance this year, as many prophesied it to be the last review for the duration.

As the ranks of men stood at attention, awards were presented to those honored for being outstanding during the past year. These honors were: Award No. 1, Cadet Captain Terry Hall, Cadet Sergeant Jack Edward Cermak, Raymond Ely, Harold Leslie Ford.

Award No. 2, Cadet First Sergeant Oliver Holmes, presented by Winifred Jacobson; Award No. 3, presented by Jean Looper, Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Marsh Allen; Award No. 4, presented by Jean Thackeray, Roberta Kennedy, Lois Zorn, Elizabeth Sanstead, and Virginia McClintock, Cadet Colonel Thomas Patrick Hall, Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Robert Anderson, Cadet Major Carroll Wood, Cadet Captain Albert Hoffman, Cadet Captain Albert Kotich.

Award No. 5, presented by Peggy O'Neil, Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Lewis Dent; Award No. 6, presented by Jean Foster, Master Sergeant Glen Waterbury; Award No. 7, presented by Sally Jo English, Corporal Willie Nakloka; Award No. 8, presented by Genevieve Bischoff, Cadet Arnold Newton; Award No. 9, presented by Kathleen Whitehead, Armin Kroehler; Award No. 10, presented by Carol Ryan, Cadet First Lieutenant Vern Roth.

Class Reunions Out For Duration

No class reunions will be held this year, by request of the Treasury Department, according to Irene Milne, head of the Alumni office.

All seniors, however, are requested to come into the Alumni office to register their new addresses. A cordial invitation is also extended to alumni in Fort Collins for the commencement exercises Friday to come in if possible.

NOTICE

There will be a faculty reception Friday afternoon at Ammons Hall for Governor John C. Vivian after commencement. All faculty members and wives are invited to attend the reception.

Livestock Club To Be Discontinued For The Duration

Climaxing a year of achievement including nation-wide recognition, the Colorado State Livestock Club held its last meeting for the duration last Monday night. Since the club has lost 60 percent of its membership already and most of the remaining 40 percent will be in uniform soon, the Livestock Club will be disbanded until the end of the national emergency.

Among the many events sponsored by the Livestock men this year are the Student Judging contest held last fall; the "Pig Road"

89 Flights Made By WTS Students Last Wednesday

On last Wednesday there were eighty-nine flights made by both the Primary and Secondary students in the W. T. S. Training. This is the largest number of flights made from the Fort Collins field in one day. According to Mr. G. W. Scott, coordinator of the W. T. S., in the future there will probably be one hundred flights made in a day.

On Wednesday afternoon of this week flying will be called off for one hour so that the students can clean the rocks off the runway.

26 Hours Flying

There are four primary students who have twenty-six hours to their credits. They will finish by May 1st. There are six secondary students who have twenty-five to thirty hours flying time to their credit.

Both the primary and secondary groups will be finished in their flights by May 10.

Summer Session

All non-resident undergraduate women students who expect to register for any part of the summer term of six, twelve, or sixteen weeks must have their housing conditions approved before leaving the campus.

Burdick Named Acting Head Of Economics Dept.

R. T. Burdick, a member of the Colorado State College faculty since 1919, was named acting head of the department of economics, sociology, and history at the April meeting of the State Board of Agriculture in Fort Collins. He succeeds L. A. Moorhouse, department head since 1921, who will retire June 30.

Burdick, a native New Yorker, received his bachelor of science degree from Cornell University in 1912. For the next 6 years he was associated with the University of Vermont, followed by a year as an accountant for a commercial concern before coming to Colorado State. He has his master's degree from Aggie and has worked toward his doctorate at both Columbia and Chicago Universities.

43 Graduates Approved

Candidates for degrees to be awarded on April 23 were approved. (Continued on page 2)

Danforth Summer Fellowships Are Offered Home Ecs

Two outstanding Colorado Aggie home economics majors will be afforded an opportunity to study this summer, by actual experience, problems of manufacturing, commercial research, distribution, advertising, personnel, and leadership, through the awarding of the Danforth summer fellowships.

Students receiving the fellowships are to be selected as representatives from thirty-nine state universities. Two students, one from this year's junior class and one from the freshman class, are to be picked by the Dean of Home Economics and her staff.

The four weeks' fellowship is awarded jointly by the Danforth Foundation and the Rubbin Parula Company. Its purpose is to help college home economics students to enlarge their horizons, to broaden their contacts, to make decisions, and to assist them in finding their places of largest service. (Continued on page 2)

39 Universities

Nearly fifty percent of the 1943 class of senior Nutrition majors have accepted appointments for internships in various hospitals and institutions throughout the country. Seven girls have already accepted appointments, four others are still undecided, and four did not make application.

Margaret McCoy will go to Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston; Winifred Smith to Stanford University Hospital, San Francisco; Lucille Taylor to Cleveland University Hospital, Cleveland; Marian Ull Sylvester to Colorado General Hospital, Denver; Margaret Wrenn and Audrey Ball to Fitzsimmons Hospital, Denver; and Avesta Ramsdell to the University of Washington, Seattle.

Barbara McIntire, Zaida Stephenson, Jeanne Knoblauch and Mary Ushiyama have not accepted appointments as yet. Those who did not apply are Ruth Romer, Mary Currier, Helen Stewart Allen and Evelyn Johnson Crans.

Aggie Honor Alum And "Fifty Year" Graduate Are Given Recognition

Posting Of Colors Will Open Annual Ceremony; Choir Will Sing

John C. Vivian, governor of Colorado, will deliver the commencement address tomorrow afternoon when 177 students will be graduated from Colorado State College at 3:30 o'clock in the Student Union hall.

Opening the program will be the posting of the colors by the R. O. T. C. color guard, after which the processional of seniors in caps and gowns will enter in a double column. The procession will begin at Ammons Hall and proceed through the Oval to the Student Union building.

Choir Sing
The invocation will be pronounced by the Rev. Eugene O'Sullivan.

Gov. Vivian's message to the class of 1943 will occur after the choir selections. At the conclusion of Vivian's address, President Roy M. Green will confer 174 bachelor's degrees, two master's degrees and one doctor's degree, with the subsequent announcement of honor students. Conferment of certificates and commissioning of R.O.T.C. graduates will follow.

"Fifty Year" Grad
The traditional "Fifty Year Graduate" will then be announced. Each year at commencement, a graduate of fifty years ago is presented. This year the alumnus will represent the class of 1893. The Honor Alumnus, another traditional presentation at commencement will be announced. This honor goes to an outstanding graduate from Colorado State.

Concluding the graduation ceremonies, R.O.T.C. color bearers will retire the colors and the recessional will file out. Music for the recessional will be furnished by Ruth Lund and Kenneth Phillip in a double piano number.

Faculty Reception
Following commencement, a faculty reception will be given in honor of Governor Vivian. All faculty members and their wives are invited to the reception.

The following bachelor's degrees will be conferred:
DIVISION OF AGRICULTURE: Donald L. Roworth, Robert A. Binder, Gordon E. Rutherford, Gordon B. Hoff. (Continued on page 2)

TIO ELECTS

TIO, women's honorary organization at C. S. C., elected officers yesterday at an afternoon meeting. Selected to lead the group for the coming year was Betty McClellan, new presy. Other officers include vice-president, Gail Farthing; secretary, Gen Bischoff, and treasurer, Elizabeth Nelson.

Bergman Receives Lt. Commission In Marine Corps

Walter F. "Bus" Bergman, former Colorado State College athlete and student body president (1941-42) has become a Second Lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps.

Second Lieutenant Bergman, who for four years played on the football, baseball, and basketball

Three Coeds Initiated Into Delta Omicron

Initiated into Delta Omicron a week ago were Rosella Ghent Webster, Marjorie Shirley, and Dorothy Strahan.

At the last meeting of the mystical honorary club the officers for the coming year were installed. These are Mary Ruth Lyman, president; Wilma Carver, vice-president; Ruth Lund, secretary; and Jean Grether, treasurer. During intermission of the string social Sunday, Mr. Kinosh was presented with a National Patron Pin. It is the second one to be presented in the state.

JOURNALISTIC CLUB PLEDGES FOUR COEDS

Four new pledge pins appeared last Thursday evening when Alpha Chi Alpha, women's honorary journalistic fraternity, honored their new members, Ann Jullis, Doreen Ramey, Emma Mae Long and Alta Mae Sooter are wearing the new pins.

Following dinner at the Student Union in honor of their seniors, members of the fraternity and the would-be pledges adjourned to Ammons Hall where the formal pledging ceremony was held.

After pledging, Alpha Chi Alpha adjourned for the current school year.

BUNYANS BEFUZZLED BY BRAINLESS BONER

Paul Bunyan and two cohorts are pictured at the climax of their search for the Engineer's method of getting milk from a steer. (Babe, the steer, is also shown.)

Aggie Engine Men Commit Top Boner — Steers, Babe Included, Give No Milk

The reason for the strained look on the faces of the Colorado State Foresters has at last been uncovered!

Since the day the picture of their pet ox Babe was shown in the Collegian being milked by a member of the Engine-ears division and labeled "speeding up production under her abductors," the future Paul Bunyans have been deeply engaged in scientific research, trying to determine why Babe, of the male gender up until two weeks ago, should suddenly change sex and produce milk.

Long consultations with the higher-ups in the Animal Husbandry division failed to disclose how anyone, (Engineer or Super-man, going to the two extremes) could get milk out of a steer. Using the Engineers' giant slide rule (shown in the picture) to facilitate any mathematics involved, also resulted in drawing a blank.

Bunyan Says
Puzzled and completely baffled, the Foresters finally turned to their idol and consultant, Paul Bunyan:

"After 10 days of deep thought by the largest brain on the campus and conferences with our learned co-students, the A. H. majors, the Foresters have decided that even if the Engineers use their slip-

Nutrition Majors Take Internships

Nearly fifty percent of the 1943 class of senior Nutrition majors have accepted appointments for internships in various hospitals and institutions throughout the country. Seven girls have already accepted appointments, four others are still undecided, and four did not make application.

Margaret McCoy will go to Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston; Winifred Smith to Stanford University Hospital, San Francisco; Lucille Taylor to Cleveland University Hospital, Cleveland; Marian Ull Sylvester to Colorado General Hospital, Denver; Margaret Wrenn and Audrey Ball to Fitzsimmons Hospital, Denver; and Avesta Ramsdell to the University of Washington, Seattle.

Barbara McIntire, Zaida Stephenson, Jeanne Knoblauch and Mary Ushiyama have not accepted appointments as yet. Those who did not apply are Ruth Romer, Mary Currier, Helen Stewart Allen and Evelyn Johnson Crans.

Signed,
Paul Bunyan."

Lt. BERGMAN

teams, earned his commission after completing the course at Officers' Candidates' Class, Quantico, Virginia. Bus is one of the few 9-letter men to graduate from Aggie. He is now enrolled in Reserve Officers' School for the second half of his six-month training period. The former Aggie all-round athlete was graduated in 1942 with a BS degree in physical education. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon. His home is in Denver.