

Annual Engineers' Ball Highlights Weekend's Festivities

Bushnell Is Featured at Engineers' Ball Tonight

by Franklee Richard

Jayne Lamar, Hybenia Edens, Jackie Woods, and Lois Simon have been chosen as Engineers' queen candidates. The queen will be elected by the engineering student body and will be presented at the Engineers' ball, November 7, in the student union ballroom.

Couples attending the semi-formal, non corsage affair will dance to the music of Dean Bushnell and his band. Decorations include a central pyramid with a five foot base bearing the symbols of all the engineering divisions and clubs. Special notice should be given to the rotation shaft in the ceiling, a gift from Sigma Tau to the student body, as it was very recently installed and will be used for the first time at this dance.

Hybenia Edens, one of the candidates, is a Kappa Alpha Theta speech therapy major from Sterling. This vivacious gal has been a majorette with the marching band for two years and also likes to dance, but she still finds time to participate in chorus, German club, and Campus Christian Fellowship.

Jayne Lamar, Miss Plum Street of 1951, is also a Theta. A peppy home economics major, she hails from Denver. She attends chorus and Progressive party meetings and likes to dance, especially hula.

Pretty Lois Simon calls Colorado

Springs home and sociology her major. A sophomore, Lois is interested in sports with emphasis on tennis and dancing, and she attends Livestock club.

Jackie Woods, a ranch girl from Clayton, New Mexico, has many and varied interests. She's a member of Counselettes, Haylofters, Lucky Horseshoes, and Chorus, and likes to sew and participate in all sports. Also a home economics major, Jackie is a member of Delta Zeta.

Social Whirl by Ann Watt

Pledge officers seems to be in style this season. Over at the ATO house the newly elected president is Erwin Skipworth. Other officers are Paul Coleman, vice president; Jim Krie, secretary-treasurer; and Walt Tenney, social chairman.

Theta Margaret Moss and AGR Louis Miller exchanged wedding vows Saturday afternoon at St. Luke's Episcopal church. A reception following the ceremony was held at the Kappa Theta house.

Proud new wearers of the Delta Delta pin are Shirley Prewitt and Louise Turpin.

Two more Sigma Nu pins are missing. Merrill Anderson's can be found on the sweater of Arthrine Edens. Rita Muldener, a student at Greeley, now has possession of Harvey Achziger's.

Phi Sigma Delta's national traveling secretary, Stan Friedman, visited the Aggie chapter last week and Mrs. Ewing Fergus, district president of Kappa Alpha Theta, was a guest at the Theta house.

New Acacia pledge officers are Dick Kountz, president; Ted Frapwell, vice president; Gene Weber, secretary; and Ed Tanaka, treasurer.

Sunday the Sigma Nus were hosts to the Thetas at an indoor picnic.

Long's Pond roller rink was the scene of a Sig Alph-G Phi party. The Sig Alphas entertained the gals at a luncheon afterwards.

Guests at the AGR house over the week end were John Brice, graduate of Oklahoma U, and Ed

Strobe, alum from the University of Kentucky.

Newest pledge of Sigma Kappa is Dorothy Pingree and Barbara Olson was the pledge of the week.

Recent honored guest at the TKE house was field secretary Maurice Goudzwaard. National president Sophus Goth will be the honored visitor this week.

Lemoine Stone, SAE, recently gave his pin to Nancy Stevens, Delta Gamma from DU.

New officers, pledge that is, of AGR are Ed Bigelow, president; Joe Bedkley, vice president; Duane Newman, secretary; Bob Vermillion, treasurer; Jack Savage, social chairman; and Jack Classe, song leader.

Charles Martinson, Mouut Barner, Bob Croissant, and Don Smith are now wearing the pledge pin of Acacia.

Another couple has taken the almost fatal step. Independent students Roma Brandt and Lyle Talbott became engaged last Saturday night.

Most recent pledge at the Sig house is Ronnie Hughes.

Acacia congratulated Theta pledge Joyce Leabo and Arlyn Rowan on their recent pinning by serenading them last Monday night.

The second annual Aggie-DU Phi Sig interchapter football game was held last Sunday in Denver. For the second consecutive year the Aggie chapter emerged victorious.

Pat Hardy, formerly a Beta Xi Kappa Delta, is now affiliated with the Phi Epsilon chapter here at Aggies.

Two new initiates of Acacia are Gordon Johnson and Francis Moellenburg.

Wednesday night dinner guest at the Tri Delt house was Dr. William Conte.

Now wearing the Tau Kappa Epsilon active pins are Dick Hann, Bob Schwindt, Dave Patterson, Wayne McNatt, and Lou Muto. Lou is quite pleased with his new position as TKE fire chief.

AGR alum Vernon Rezac stopped at the house Monday night for a short visit with his fraternity brothers before departing for foreign duty in Germany.

Wednesday night the Phi Delt were hosts to the Kay Dees at a dessert party and the Sigma Chis and Sig Eps had an exchange dinner. Thursday the DZs and the Aca-

One of these four Aggie coeds will reign over the annual engineer's ball tonight in the student union. Shown brushing up on their engineering work with a slide rule are left to right: Jayne Lamar, Hybenia Edens, Jackie Woods, and Lois Simon. The queen will be selected by a vote of the students in the A & M engineering school.

Counseling Planned By Religious Council

Student Religious council, made up of representatives from all faiths, meets Tuesday noon in the rose room of the student union.

Marvin Sackschewsky is president; Virgil Bottom, professor of physics; Edward Buss, professor of poultry husbandry; and John Olive, professor of zoology, are advisors.

According to Bob Salisbery, chairman of counseling committee, a bulletin board will be placed in the cave of the student union announcing counseling hours of 12 pastors of various denominations. Counseling service will be available beginning November 17, Monday thru Thursdays 1-5:30 p.m.

Ground work has been laid for Religious Emphasis week (January 25-28). The theme will be "What I Believe."

All fraternities, sororities and other social groups are requested to check all names and dates before turning them in to the Collegian. All material will be published as it is received, and the staff can not be responsible for errors made by the individual groups, according to Ann Watt, society editor.

CLOTHES BASKET

by Carol Moore

Following the trend toward versatility and serviceability is that coat worn by Louise White. Of light weight red and grey checked wool, this coat has a patented lining called TFMP-RESISTO. This lining is just as warm as conventional linings, but more light-weight.

This coat has a large collar, and cuffed sleeves. The pockets are accented by set-in pieces and down the front are three large pearl buttons.

Accessories include a black suede pill-box bag, and a black velveteen hat with white trim.

This coat is sold locally at the Bon Marche.
